THE HISTORY

In autumn of 1949 the doors of Pomona Catholic High were opened to the youth of Pomona Valley. For years the pastor, Rev. Thomas P. English, had realized the great need for a Catholic high school in this particular locality. Under his intelligent leadership and untiring zeal, and with the concerted effort of the parish the attractive high school building was obtained. To staff the school the Felician Sisters were persuaded to come West.

We owe many thanks to Very Reverend Mother M. Simplicita, the superior general, and to Reverend Mother M. Felicitas, the superior of the Chicago Province, for undertaking this project and implanting the spark of the Midwest into the far West.

The school has a spacious library and twenty modern classrooms, six of which are laboratories. The program of studies contains various curricula and subjects of varied content to enable the student to broaden his spiritual, intellectual, and physical horizons. The integrating factor of our school life is the Catholic Philosophy, which aims at the development of the whole man, and educates man to seek the Eternal Truth.

This year Pomona Catholic High School has functioned as a full-fledged senior high school. Under the efficient directorship of Father Murphy the athletic program has flourished. The students keeping pace with the program have won the Catholic Conference football, baseball, and track championships for the last three consecutive years. Thus, with a thrill of pride the members of the first graduating class present this brief history of Pomona Catholic High School - a school second to none.

Dedication

To ST. JOSEPH, model of fidelity, the Seniors dedicate the first edition of the Fidelian. We invoke His intercession to keep us ever faithful to Catholic heritage and ideals, and to the traditions and counsels of our Alma Mater.

To FATHER ENGLISH, on the occasion of his Silver Jubilee, and in recognition of his efforts to further Catholic education, we dedicate this yearbook as a sincere gesture of our gratitude and appreciation.

Foreword

To present and preserve the glories, achievements, and resplendent memories of the first graduating class of Pomona Catholic High School has been the goal of the staff. Cognizant of the fact that throughout the high school days the students have been motivated by the spirit of the Alma Mater to remain STEADFAST in faith, STRONG in will, and FAITHFUL to its traditions, this inspiring theme was incorporated in to our year-book.

It is hoped that this volume will be not only a living journal of the students' high school years, but also an inspiration and a challenge to future classes.

His Eminence J. Francis Cardinal McIntyre

Pomona Catholic High School is indeed fortunate in having as our leader and guide His Eminence, J. Francis Cardinal A. McIntyre, who championed the sacred cause of parochial education in the Great West. May His Eminence be blessed with a long life to continue his memorable work both as a Prince of the Church and as an outstanding Educator.

REVEREND THOMAS P. ENGLISH

To Father English, pastor and efficient administrator of Pomona Catholic High School, the students owe unfailing loyalty and heartfelt gratitude. Through your inspiring devotion to the cause of Catholic Education, you have sought to encourage us in the daily practice of the Faith and the acquisition of virtues which will be of inestimable value in our future lives.

Moreover, you have provided adequate facilities for growth: spiritual, intellectual, moral and physical. You have been the guiding light behind our successes and the comforting assurance in our failures. We, the students, shall endeavor to live in conformity with the Christian ideals set before us during our years at school.

REVEREND JAMES MURPHY

His interest in sports and social activities, as well as his kindly concern over each student's temporal and spiritual well-being, has won many friends for Father Murphy. He is fully deserving of our sincere thanks, our deepest respect, and our earnest cooperation. By his undaunted effort he laid the groundwork for the sports program, which brought many honors to Pomona Catholic.

REVEREND FRED CALLAHAN

Pomona Catholic boys and girls are indeed privileged in having an able counselor, Father Callahan, to befriend them and to aid them in solving their personal problems. His alertness in helping us through classroom discussions or in casual contact will always be remembered and appreciated. To him we owe our deepest admiration and gratitude.

REVEREND JOSEPH CARRIER

For the many spiritual counsels given to the boys and girls in the confessional and in the pulpit the Senior class extend reverent and devout appreciation.

HIS EMINENCE, CARDINAL McINTYRE, addresses the congregation.

The Cardinal assisted by Rev. A. Beta and Rev. D. Strange proceeds to bless the building.

Distinguished

Tribute to the Faculty

The Felician Sisters have been more to us than just teachers. They have felt a keen interest in each student personally, and have had a deep understanding of that student's problems. Through their efforts, hidden talents have been discovered and latent ambitions for worthy endeavor have been fostered.

The seniors wish to acknowledge their deep appreciation to the Faculty for their diligent instruction, their friendly understanding, and their holy inspiration.

The Parent-Teachers' Association has been extremely busy and productive of good results. Two events, Christmas Formal and Bingo, were especially outstanding. Through these fund-raising projects they furnished the school with a reading accelerator and visual-aid equipment.

Special recognition is extended to those P.T.A. Mothers who so graciously cooperated in supporting the activities of the school. Whenever necessity beckoned, they gave freely of their time to serve warm breakfasts to the students on First Fridays and retreat days.

Student Government Promotes Good

Always anxious to provide for the welfare of the student body, the student government has operated jointly with the faculty to develop the ideal Catholic boy and girl, foster good citizenship, and promote wholesome school spirit. This association, which is divided into three functional groups: the student council, the upper and lower house, and the student court, served as a clearing-house for ideas developed in respective homerooms.

To further promote democratic thinking and living, the student court, which was organized this year, interpreted the rules and prosecuted the defendants for infractions of school regulations. Carl Naschak, the chief justice, met with the court on Wednesdays. Periodically, the court sessions were open to the students.

Law enforcement was vested in the Senior Control Board. These members were selected from the Service Leagues: the Key Club and the Philotheans.

The Upper House, under the Chairmanship of the A.S.B. president, discusses vital problems.

The defendant, Joan Carignan, pays court fines to clerk, Jim Espenson.

Ted Ciesla, the prosecuting attorney, cross-examines Tom McCullough.

Dan Beck, a hall guard, arrests David Shriver.

The Speaker of the Lower House, Gerald Montgomery, proposes an amendment to the Constitution.

Senior Wins "Miss Fidelian" Title

In September the Juniors zealously entered their first year as upperclassmen. Eager to start their whirl of activities, the Junior officers planned immediately to set up committees for Freshmen Initiation. They displayed their versatility and showmanship in clever skits and fund raising programs.

As the year progressed, the Juniors proved to be diligent and able workers. Their calendar was filled with assembly programs, monthly days of recollection, ring selection, and the Senior-Junior Prom.

Although their social life was filled with activities, their scholastic record was commendable. Eight juniors were elected to the Honor Roll for high scholarship.

Throughout the year the Freshmen have displayed a fine spirit of cooperation and promising talent by participating enthusiastically in diversified activities, such as: noonday recitation of the Rosary, attendance at games, dances, and rallies, and good support in fund drives.

The traditional Sock Hop to honor the fledglings sponsored by the Senior Class promoted friendliness and good will among the students. Ten members of the class were elected to the Honor Roll.

A very active group of Freshmen officers got off to a good start by appointing committees to sponsor a "Thank You" movie and program for the upper-classmen. At Senate meetings they have given undivided attention to the proceedings and have faced their responsibilities gravely. Now at the end of the first goal, the Freshman Class is looking forward to the fun and excitement of returning next fall as "Big Sophomores."

The Sodalists of the Blessed Virgin Mary functioned to promote personal sanctification and tender love to Our Lady. The annual retreat conducted by Father Parrish, S.J., was held at the end of the first semester. Imbibed with apostolic zeal the students recited the rosary daily and shared their material gifts and prayers for the spread of Christ's Kingdom.

The most solemn and momentous event in the life of the Sodalists was the May Crowning. The Senior girl prefect, Marguerite Bourgeois, prayerfully placed a wreath of roses on the hallowed brow of our Queen and Mother.

Languages and Fine Arts Open

The language and literature classes were deeply imbued with the character and culture of the various nations. The Sophomore English classes displayed exhibits of climatic scenes of Shakespearean tragedy "Julius Caesar." The Spanish class was not outdone. Students enriched the study of Latin-American countries by purchasing filmstrips and records, executing national dances, and presenting shopping and home scenes in conversational Spanish.

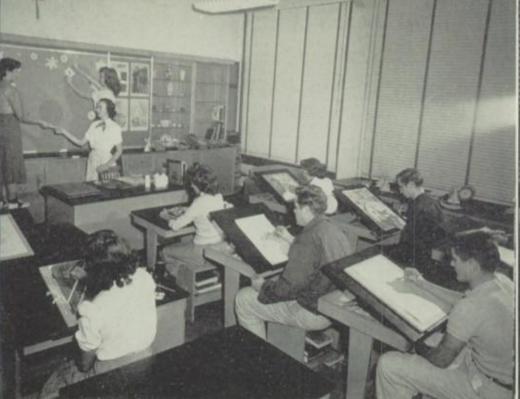

As a result new interests were awakened among the language students and they began to understand better the intercultural and international problems.

Vistas to New Horizons

In conformity with the Holy Father's wish that "Faith may guide the Arts," the Pomona Catholic Students have learned to appreciate and interpret beauty in a Christlike perspective. The creative urge was given expression in paintings, drawings, design, ceramics, leatherwork, and woodcraft.

Fidelian and Lance Staff

With the completion of the first yearbook the Fidelian Staff crystallized the dream of a fully-equipped and well - functioning senior high school. Despite hurdles and apparent failure the energetic staff workers displayed administrative and inventive talent, and sacrificed generously their time during study periods, weekends, and after school.

Just as the staff found pleasure in compiling this edition for the student body so may the Pomona Catholic students enjoy the memories of the year 1953.

Achieve Desired Goals

The Lance, a bimonthly paper, has aimed to give the students the school news in a fair and impartial manner. The school newspaper required hard work, cooperation, and serviceable teamwork. In the current year the reporters have demonstrated their literary talent by contributing news and features regularly.

Early in the year the newly appointed editors of the Fidelian staff were privileged to broaden and exchange their journalistic views by attending a Press Convention at Redlands University. On March 17th twenty-three Fidelian and Lance staff members participated in the Catholic Journalism Conference held in Long Beach.

Science education at every grade level has been organized at Pomona Catholic and presented so as to develop skills in reflective thinking and problem solving. The curriculum consists of ninth-grade general science, tenth-grade biology, eleventh-grade chemistry, and twelfth-grade physics. The flexible program permits the student to select science as a major, minor, or a graduate requirement.

Two outstanding science and math majors, John Barbazette and Jennie Bejnar were awarded the Bausch and Lomb Science Award for high scholastic achievement. Many students have developed scientific interests, attitudes and appreciation for biological and physical sciences, which may aid them in selecting future careers.

Shed Light on Careers for Students

Plotting and interpreting of graphs in the mathematics classes played a significant role in simplifying and clarifying the concepts. A math major may select a course on every level and thereby expose himself to the opportunities offered in advanced fields of learning and in related occupations.

Pomona Catholic was singularly honored this year when John Barbazette on the basis of a mathematics test was appointed to West Point Military Academy.

In addition to the social graces, the program offered dressmaking, interior decorating, group planning, and organization.

Annunciation is pantomimed for Fred Waring's "The Song of Christmas."

"Joy to the World" filled the bedecked halls of Pomona Catholic High during the traditional Wreath Ceremony. The Seniors sang Christmas carols and extended greetings, which radiated cheer and happiness, to all their under classmates.

The Christmas Pageant pantomimed by the Freshmen, impressed the hearts profoundly as the students contemplated the ennobling scenes of the Annunciation, the Nativity, and the Manifestation in Fred Waring's "A Song of Christmas," rendered by the Senior Glee Club.

ALL S.C.I.F.

Halfback Tom Cunningham received the highest award that a high school player could achieve. The Southern California Interscholastic Federation presented him with an achievement plaque and elected him as a first string FULLBACK of the small schools' division. The Spartans are very proud of the recognition and hope to see other players earn it next year.

Cunningham's scoring prowess, by his own taciturn admission, stemmed partly from the constant study of rival weaknesses. But, according to his fellow team-mates, fleetness of foot and shifty knack of disguising his intention were the main scoring assets.

THE PEP CLUB

Artistic, athletic, alerted for fun the Pep Club injected spirited enthusiasm into the rallies and social events of the school. The Songleader and Yell leaders were the dynamic force behind the Spartan teams. They cheered the teams to VICTORY. They, likewise, shared the honor of the Catholic Conference.

The end of the 1952 Spartan gridiron campaign brought a bit of sadness to loyal rooters. After winning seven straight league encounters, the Spartans lost out in their bid for a CIF playoff win as they were defeated by Barstow, 25-6. Their season record was 8 and 2. Victories over Brea Olinda, Mary Star of the Sea and Saint Monica were the big victories which the Spartans celebrated. They completely ran over all other league teams and dropped only one other tilt to Corona High School. This record will stand not only as a cherished remembrance to the 1952 Spartan team, but it will rank as a successful year of coaching in the mind of Head Coach John Frampton.

The Bee squad will always remember George Greenlee for giving them a winning team also. The Bees were not expected to win many games this season but racked up a 6 and 3 season for their efforts.

Homecoming and Grid Banquet High

Topping off a successful and a glorious grid season, two events climaxed the 1952-1953 school year at Pomona Catholic High.

The Homecoming Dance, ruled by Queen Theresa Binckley, lured almost the entire student body and their parents to an evening of entertainment. The theme of the seasonal dance was Garden of Paradise. Attractively decorated, the EBELL CLUB was the center of the celebration commemorating the Spartan's 31-0 victory over Mater Dei High School earlier that night.

The Football Banquet was a grand success. Roast beef and trophies combined made a fitting finish for a triumphant Spartan team. Football emblems were presented to both Varsity and B squads for their successful seasons. Team members were selected as the most valuable, the most improved, and the best sportsmanship players from both teams.

A permanent trophy was awarded to the school for winning the League championship three consecutive years. Four Pomona Catholic players were selected on the All-Catholic Conference team.

The 1953 Varsity cage squad completed a fair season this year, even thought they were overmatched in most of their non-league games. Coach George Greenlee's squad was composed primarily of under classmen with only one senior on the first string.

The juniors, sophomores, and freshmen members have ecquired needed experience which will be an asset to next year's basketball season.

The varsity came in fifth in the league standings and displayed good sportsmanship at all games.

Varsity Tracksters Have

Owing to the two years of able guidance by track coach Henry Pospychala, the Spartan varsity cindermen opened their 1953 campaign in March and showed dominance over rival Parochial League teams.

The varsity squad was the league title holder by virtue of their win in last year's five way meet. This season the Spartans were strong in 440, mile run, shot put, high jump, and the low hurdles. In their first three meets the squad practically took all three places.

By mid-March two school records were broken and another one set. Dick Mesler tossed the shot put 45 feet 4 inches for one record and Ernie Ochoa found the time right for another school record of five feet nine inches in the high jump. Pete Ramos pole vaulted 9 feet six inches to establish the record.

Coach Pospychala tabbed this year's squad as the best Spartan team. His statement was verified when the squad captured their first two meets by overwhelming scores of 76 to 28 and 89 to 15.

Varsity Horsehide Nine Wins Third Championship

This year the varsity started out by turning back their first four rival league teams. It looked like a sure bet that the team would enter the CIF playoffs again this year.

The varsity was invited to participate in the 18th Annual 20-30 Invitational Tournament in which were entered 32 of the finest Southland prep baseball teams. Our first game was with Cathedral High and the Spartans opened up an 11 hit barrage to stem a 6 run last inning outburst by Cathedral and chalked up a 10-6 win.

They faced Santa Barbara next but were defeated by the Dons, 11-8. The Dons eventually went on to win the Tournament so the defeat was not so hard to take.

Thanks to Coach John Frampton the Spartans will probably get their third CIF playoff chance.

Vince Yepez sets to throw a fast one. Yepez prepares to heave a curve. Tom Cunningham has eye on the ball.

Tom Cunningham completes swing on a mighty drive.

Carl Naschak executes a perfect slide safely.

G. A. A. GIRLS' LETTER CLUB: First row: B. Naughten, N. Hitt, M. Borba, G. Caporaso, J. Miller, V. Rausch, M. Wilkinson. Second row: M. Garess, M. Stone, G. Frakes, A. Harich, J. Kuras, Y. Tessier. Third row: B. Sullo, P. Airey, J. Brannan, S. Tessier, D. Baque, T. Binckley, M. Morrow.

G.A.A.

The Girl's Athletic Association was "on the go" continually this year. With bicycling, ice skating, horseback riding, bowling and many other activities, the girls really earned the title of being "athletic." The big activity of the year sponsored by the G.A.A. was the Valentine Dance which was a huge success.

VOLLEYBALL VARSITY TEAM: Left to right: Mrs. S. Reitler (coach), B. Naughten (captain), M. Read, F. Ruiz, J. Ricca, M. Borba, T. Binckley, C. Martinez, M. Stone, D. Stone, A. Kehl, P. Carignan.

VOLLEYBALL

Teamwork, good serves, and excellent spikers were outstanding features in the girls volleyball team this year. Although there were not too many games played, the girls defeated Mater Dei twice. The game with St. Bernadine's was a fight to the finish. The final score recorded a 15 to 13 win for the opponents.

Varsity Invited to

An exciting game took place the afternoon of March 13th at the Long Beach Tournament, when P.C.H. Varsity Basketball Team overtook Marywood High, 40-22. As a result the girls journeyed back to Long Beach the following Sunday to meet Holy Family in a breath-taking but heartbreaking contest.

The opponents emerged victorious by racking up 3 points in the last minute of the game. The score was Holy Family 33 to Pomona's 30.

Will it go in or won't it? wonders Carmen Cagigas after throwing a terrific hook shot.

It's up to you, Theresa, to get that ball if it doesn't go in.

Nice shot, Betty, as she rings up another two points for P.C.H.

Journey

BASKETBALL VARSITY TEAM: First row: A. Kehl, B. Naughten, P. Carignan, J. Beinar. Second row: M. Borba, D. Stone, J. Brannan, P. Eilers. Third row: A. Harich, M. Stone, M. McGraw. Fourth row: T. Binckley, C. Cagigas, F. Ruiz, M. Morrow.
